A RUSSIAN CITY IN FLAMES

Tartars, Armenians and Russian Troops Fight at Shusha.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—As anticipated July 29, the triangular truce between Armenians, Tartars and the Russian troops before Shusha was of the briefest nature.

The fighting is not only in full progress at Shusha itself, a town of 30,000 persons (180 miles to the southeast of Tiflis), the Tartar quarter of which apparently is in flames, but it has spread to the surrounding country. There the Tartar population has risen and is striving to overwhelm the Armenians and the Russian troops.

It is worthy of note that the Russians who in the disorders of last year were accused of protecting the Tartars from Armenian attack are now themselves hard pressed by the Mohammedan hordes.
